Extract from the rules of the Tibetan Terrier Association.

Rule 2. Objectives

The objectives of the Association shall be to encourage the responsible breeding, exhibition and improvement of the Tibetan Terrier and to do all in its power to protect and advance the interests of the breed.

Rule 3. Membership

- (a) Membership shall be unlimited and open to all, subject to election by majority vote of the Committee and payment of the Annual Subscription.
 - (b) Classes of membership shall be:
 - i. Single membership
 - ii. Joint Members who may be any number of persons, including the husband, wife or children of a single member, joint holders of a registered affix or partnership residing at one address. All such adult joint members shall be entitled to vote at Club proceedings, but shall not be sent individual copies of notices, magazines, etc.
 - iii. Junior Members who are under 16 years of age and who shall be ineligible to vote. (Must accompany an adult membership at the same address).
 - iv. Life Members
 - v. Honorary Members
 - vi. Overseas Members who may be in any of the above classes, who are resident outside the United Kingdom, Isle of Man and Channel Islands and who shall be ineligible to vote. Expatriate members shall have full voting rights.
 - (c) Candidates for membership shall be proposed by one member and seconded by another on a Proposal Form on which Rules 2 & 3 of the Association are printed.
 - (d) Membership shall begin on the date of election by the Committee
 - (e) Immediately following election each member shall receive a copy of the Breed Standard and a copy of these rules which shall be binding on him and acceptance of which is a condition of membership
 - (f) Names and Addresses of members shall be kept by the Hon. Secretary. The membership list shall be open to inspection by members of the Association and the Kennel Club on request at any reasonable time.
